

Alignment Document

State of Tennessee And Aventa Learning World History

World History 2005-2007 Benchmark Blueprint

State Standard Number	State Standard Area / Description	Unit Name	Course Topic Description
0	World History
1.0	Culture
1.1	understand the multi-cultural components to world culture.		Covered throughout the course
1.2	understand the development and migration of art, architecture, language, religion, music and theater.		Covered throughout the course
1.3	understand the ways in which individuals and groups contributed to changes in social conditions.		Covered throughout the course
1.4	examine how various individuals and groups use methods to diminish cultural elements and eradicate entire groups.		Covered throughout the course
2.0	Economics
2.1	understand the major economic systems that developed globally.
2.2	recognize the importance of technologies for economic development.	Revolution	The Industrial Revolution
2.3	understand the impact of the Industrial Revolution on the global economy.	Revolution	The Industrial Revolution
2.4	understand the rapid change of the global economy after the Industrial Revolution in the 20th century.	Revolution	The Industrial Revolution

2.5	understand the contribution of individuals to the economy systems of the world.	Revolution	The Industrial Revolution
3.0	Geography
3.1	understand the importance of physical geographic features on world historic events.		Covered throughout the course
3.2	understand human geographic interactions and their impact on world historic events.		Covered throughout the course
3.3	understand the importance of population growth and distribution on world historic events.
4.0	Governance and Civics
4.1	understand the development of major systems of world governance.		Covered throughout the course
4.2	understand how individuals are affected differently by varied forms of governance.		Covered throughout the course
4.3	understand the development of nation-state governments.		Covered throughout the course
4.4	understand the emergence of world governmental organizations.		Covered throughout the course
5.0	History
5.1	understand the chronological flow of historical eras and events in World History.		Covered throughout the course
5.2	understand the processes that gave rise to the earliest human civilizations.	Foundations	The Neolithic
5.3	understand the maturation of Africa, Asia, Europe, Australia, the Middle East, Oceanic, and the Americas and their continuing impact on the modern world.	The Modern World	Africa and the Middle East since 1945
5.4	understand the history and impact of world religions.		Covered throughout the course
5.5	understand the evolution of modern and western civilizations from 1000 CE to the present.		Covered throughout the course
5.6	understand the importance of the various economic systems in place during the 19th and 20th century.	Revolution	The Industrial Revolution

5.7	understand the impact of various global conflicts throughout history.		Covered throughout the course
5.8	understand the continuing impact of historical events on the modern world.		Covered throughout the course
5.9	understand the impact of developing technology on the world.		Covered throughout the course
5.10	understand how historical information is collected, recorded, interpreted, transmitted, and disseminated across various historical eras.		Covered throughout the course
5.11	understand the importance of major trends and movements in world history.		Covered throughout the course
5.12	understand the origin, evolution, decline, and impact of empire building and imperialism.	Revolution	The Age of Imperialism
6.0	Individuals, Groups, and Interactions
6.1	understand the impact of one's culture on identity, lifestyle, and socioeconomic status.		Covered throughout the course
6.2	recognize the role of individuals in various cultures such as Western, Asian, African, Middle Eastern, and indigenous cultures.		Covered throughout the course
6.3	understand the extent to which individuals, groups and institutions interact to produce continuity and change throughout world history.		Covered throughout the course